"Ramblings of an Old Preacher Memoirs of Artie Collins"

By: Artie Collins

"This book contains a record of the various stages of the life of Artie Collins in his own words. He has been a minister of the gospel in Churches of Christ for more than fifty-five years. It begins with his early life in the woods of rural middle Tennessee ... Finally, it describes the influences in his life that lead to him becoming a full-time gospel preacher... He wrote the book for his family and the many friends he has made over his eighty-seven years of life."

Artie is also the author of two volumes of Chart Sermons, published by Hester Publications in 2007 and 2010.

If you would like a copy of his current book, please sign the list on the foyer table, and Brother Collins will be happy to get you one. The cost is $20. Many were distributed last Sunday.

Peace from Pain

When days are rough, and times seem tough,
and we're under pressure and strain;
Trust the Lord, and obey His Word,
and peace will come from the pain.
