Pine Vale Children's Home

Monthly Letter – March 3, 2017

To the Friends of Pine Vale,

HOPE. FEAR. ANGER. DEPRESSION. INDIFFERENCE.

Hope, most children that enter foster care actually enter with hope. There is a little confusion and apprehension, but normally still hope. Hope often fades to fear after time. That fear develops into anger. Anger may result in depression. Depression can be replaced with indifference. This progression all depends on time.

You may wonder why I am telling you this in a letter sent to thank you for contributing to Pine Vale. I want you to know how valuable time is. I want you to know that what you help us provide is time. Time to reassure children that are afraid. Time to empathize with children that are angry. Time to support children that are depressed. Time to love children that have become indifferent.

The children that are at Pine Vale will, can, and do go through these feelings. If they were not with us, they would go through these feelings somewhere else. Somewhere that they might not receive the time that they need to work through them. Somewhere that they might lose all hope.

We do not want them to ever lose hope. So we thank you for your donation of $1,531 to our building fund, as well as your monthly gift. It helps buy a little bit of time to provide a great amount of hope.

Please continue to remember our efforts to "raise the roof" in 2017 campaign. Continue to spread the news about Pine Vale and remember us in your prayers. Check out our updated website www.pinevalechildrenshome.com. There are more updates coming. May God bless you for the blessing you have been to us!

In His service,

Randy Collum, Executive Director
