TALKING WITH JESUS

I just saw this picture on a friend's timeline and I had to share. This is Mel Gibson talking to the actor who played Jesus in the movie The Passion of the Christ. Mel was the director of that movie. I'm sure he is giving him advice on what to do in a scene or something, but it made me think something totally different. Just imagine sitting next to Jesus like this and talking to him about how hard your life is. Or, asking him to take the pain away because you can't stand it. You're doing this while you look right at him, bloody and beaten. He looks that way because he made the ultimate sacrifice, for you. Even after that, he still loves you. He wants us to talk to him. He wants to help us. He loves us. He died on that cross for us so that we could be forgiven. When we talk to him, we can't see him sitting next to us like this, but he is there, and he listens to us just like this.
