BOOK TABLES

In the annex, there are three tables with a good selection of books. From Bibles printed in the late 1800's, to new Bibles with the plastic wrappers still intact. There are a good number of sermon outline books, from brothers Gus Nichols, Guy N. Woods, V.P. Black, George DeHoff and other brotherhood preachers.

One table has video teaching aids and DVD's of contemporary Christian musicians, along with matching magazine type books that have devotionals that go with the music, and class study guides that go along with the music and videos. Many of these are great for teen classes.

A third table has a great assortment of class books for different age-groups. There are books on marriage enrichment, parenting, and apologetics, and there are videos on a variety of topics. Many of the books and videos are put out by John Clayton.

Please look over the three tables and take what you need. There is a box on one of the tables for donations. Donations are not required, but are appreciated. If you see something you need or just something you like, and can't donate, that's OK. Take what you need. The tables will stay up through next Wednesday night. After that, anything left will be donated to the church library.
