DETAILS

I love the large oil painting that hangs in our living room. Numerous times a day I pass by it. Recently I looked at it, and in the background I noticed a small building. I had never seen it before. Then I looked closer to see all that the artist had put into the picture. I wondered: how did I miss seeing that small detail that adds balance and interest to the scene?

My thoughts turned to the canvas of my life and its details. My mother rarely showed affection, but I knew she loved me. I remember as a small child how she kissed my cheek after drying my hair. I remember the small puppy I had. I remember the card my teenage son made for me on Mother's Day.

Remembering details of sorrows and joys in my life, I'm reminded that Jesus is "the author and perfecter of our faith" (NIV) - our artistic Creator. No two creations are alike; there are different details in each canvas. Our trials and blessings teach us, shaping us into that finished work God envisions in each of us. One day we will be made perfect and complete in Christ Jesus.

Prayer:

Creator God, help us to be patient with others and ourselves as you continue your work in each of us.

In Jesus name, Amen.
