“MASTER THE TEMPEST IS RAGING”

In Mark's storm story, the terror was not exactly over when the wind and the waves quit.

“Silence! Be still!”

Suddenly, the wind stopped and there was great calm. Then Jesus asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?” The disciples were absolutely terrified. “Who is this man?” they asked each other. “Even the wind and the waves obey him!” Mark 4:39-41

The disciples still didn't understand, but they asked the right question! “Who is this man?”

Every Christian's confidence comes from the answer to that question. Then those who know Him as “the Son of God” have placed their confidence in Him.

The song's chorus then describes the confidence we find in the Master!

*“The winds and the waves shall obey thy will,
Peace be still! Peace be still!”*

*Whether the wrath of the storm tossed sea, or demons or men, or whatever it be, no water can swallow the ship where lies The Master of ocean and earth and skies;
They all shall sweetly obey thy will, Peace be still! Peace be still!
They all shall sweetly obey thy will; Peace be still! Peace be still!”*

I Will See Him

I may not see the top of holy Sinai,
Or the land that once with milk and honey flowed;
I may not, like a bird, soar up through the sky,
Or have on me the honors of men bestowed...
But I will see Jesus! O! Yes! I'll see Him,
And when He comes for me I will go to Him!
And then I'll see Heaven – where I'll live with Him!
O! Yes! I'll see Jesus! I'll surely see Him!

I may not find the cure for some dread disease,
And thereby astound the experts of the world;
I may not end war and bring to all men peace
And see one flag over all unfurled...
But I will see Jesus! O! Yes! I'll see Him,
And when He comes for me I will go to Him!
And then I'll see Heaven – where I'll live with Him!
O! Yes! I'll see Jesus! I'll surely see Him!

I may not have a friend to stand by my side,
Or even one to help as His work I do;
I may not see bad men here success denied,
Or good men exalted when the day is through...
But I will see Jesus! O! Yes! I'll see Him,
And when He comes for me I will go to Him!
And then I'll see Heaven – where I'll live with Him!
O! Yes! I'll see Jesus! I'll surely see Him!

I may not, in this world, know the precious rest
That the Lord has promised those who would be true;
I may not have the things others count as best,
With precious little I may have to make do...
But I will see Jesus! O! Yes! I'll see Him,
And when He comes for me I will go to Him!
And then I'll see Heaven – where I'll live with Him!
O! Yes! I'll see Jesus! I'll surely see Him!

I may not overcome all the foes I face,
Or see the weaknesses that hindered me gone;
I may not ever find for myself a place...
Or see the works He gave me at long last done...
But I will see Jesus! O! Yes! I'll see Him,
And when He comes for me I will go to Him!
And then I'll see Heaven – where I'll live with Him!
O! Yes! I'll see Jesus! I'll surely see Him!
