HEAVEN A CHRISTIAN'S JOURNEY INTO ETERNITY

“After one or two hundred years, everything you own now will be decayed, trashed, and torn down or in disrepair. In twenty years your car will probably be in the junk yard. How many homes in your town are over a hundred years old?”

“One hundred and one years from now the memory of your existence on this earth will be little more than a name on a tombstone and a line on a family tree. The only thing that will last is the treasure you lay up in Heaven (Matt.6:19-21). Your faith, good deeds, love of God's word, and worship of the Almighty will be remembered and rewarded forever in that eternal city foursquare!”

HEAVEN'S HOMECOMING “Our hearts will skip a beat at the sound of the trumpet. Our hands will drop what they are holding. Our eyes will look to the heavens. Our tired feet will rise never to touch earth again. Our aging bodies will be changed. Joining Moses or Paul, or mother or brother, we shall join hands and fly away through the gates of that heavenly city.

“Then and there the righteous of God-- those cleansed by the blood of the lamb, those blessed martyrs, and great preachers, and humble servants, and teachers of little children, and leaders of great churches, and those who have served fifty years in the mission field, and those baptized just the day before-- will all walk hand in hand onto the street of gold singing a new song. This will be Heaven's great homecoming!” MM

Read it, and it will whet your appetite, increase your desire, and enlighten you even more about that wonderplace that God calls Home. Dennis has given us a masterful combination of information and inspiration in this great work.”
