THE CHRISTIAN GRACES ♠ part 4

“ADD ...TO KNOWLEDGE TEMPERANCE”

- B. Victory is in Jesus, and in Him alone
1. We will never master our desires without surrendering to Jesus by doing what the Holy Spirit reveals (Romans 7:25; 8:1-4).
 2. Christ lives in me if, and only if, I am living “by faith of the Son of God” (Galatians 2:20; cf. Jude 3).
 3. One must be baptized into Christ, in order to live in Him (Romans 6:3-6, 12-19).

MANIFESTATIONS OF TEMPERANCE

- A. Are we keeping our emotions and drives in check? (Ephesians 4:26; James 1:19,20; Matthew 5:27,28)
- B. Do we put God first in our lives, even before family and friends (Matthew 10:28, 32-39)
- C. Are we keeping even legitimate drug use to a minimum? (1 Timothy 5:23)
- D. Do we love people and use money or vice versa? (1 Timothy 6:10, 17-19)
- E. Are we replacing harmful habits with productive ones? (1 Corinthians 6:12, 16:15).
- F. Are we careful to fulfill our desires within the parameters of God's will? (1 John 2:15-17; Hebrews 13:4; 1 Peter 2:2).
- G. Do we bridle our tongues (James 1:26)? How well we do this is the “acid test” of self-control, because “if any man offend not in work, the same is a perfect an, and able also to bridle the whole body” (James 3:2). [An “acid test” is a thorough test to find out the real quality of some person or thing.]

Conclusion: You cannot hope to “glorify God in your body” (1 Corinthians 6:19,20) without exercising self-control. Who or what controls you? ~ForestHillsChurchOfChrist.com~
